

The Champion Lecture

Dr Austen Ivereigh

“The Papacy of Francis: Conversion & Resistance”

Dr Austen Ivereigh is Fellow in Contemporary Church History at Campion Hall and one of the leading interpreters of the Papacy. He is a writer, journalist and commentator, formerly deputy Editor of ‘The Tablet’. His latest book Wounded Shepherd follows from The Great Reformer: Francis and the making of a Radical Pope, and is an account and analysis of the often turbulent reform led by Jorge Mario Bergoglio. It draws on three years research in Rome, Latin America and the United States and involves interviews with key participants, as well as the Pope himself.

Thursday 23 January 2020 at 5.30 pm

Lecture followed by Q & A session at The Pichette Auditorium, Pembroke College, Oxford OX1 1DW

Please register with Eventbrite for this Lecture

