

John Henry Newman Lecture 2019

‘Creating
change:
reflections on government, education and faith’

Rt Hon Ruth Kelly Pro-Vice-Chancellor
St Mary’s University Twickenham

Wednesday 8th
May at 5pm

Lecture Hall, Taylor Institution, followed by a reception at Blackfriars.

The John Henry Newman Annual Lecture is offered to the University of Oxford by its Catholic Halls: Blackfriars, Campion Hall, and St Benet’s.

No charge, but please register at admin@bfriars.ox.ac.uk.

The Rt. Hon. Ruth Kelly is Pro-Vice Chancellor for Research and Enterprise at St Mary’s University, Twickenham. Ruth was the Member of Parliament for Bolton West from 1997 and 2010 and held a number of ministerial and Cabinet positions, including the post of Secretary of State at three government departments: Transport; Communities and Local Government; and Education. Ruth has also held senior positions at HSBC Global Asset Management and is a non-executive director of Heathrow Airport Holdings.